LARRY SUMMERFIELD GUILTY.

NOTORIOUS SWINDLER CONVICTED FOR THE FIRST TIME.

The Horseshoe Copper Mining Company Game Did for the Man Who Has Been Immune as a "Wire Tapper"—New Indictment for Swindling Buchanan.

Larry Summerfield, who shares honors with "Chippie" Moran as the most notorious of "wire tappers" and all round confidence men, was convicted yesterday for the first time in his life. He was tried before Justice Davis in the Criminal Branch of the Supreme Court for grand larceny. He was one of the swindlers who worked the Horse Shoe Copper Mining Company swindle in which G. W. Effinger lost $7,000. Summerfield's sentence is set for Thursday. His lawyers expect to get him out of jail on a certificate of respite to the effect that if he does get out, he will be arrested upon a new indictment for grand larceny that was filed yesterday. Charles P. Buchanan, a tobacco merchant of this city, says Summerfield swindled him out of $10,000 a year ago last summer. The story of this swindle has been told often. It occurred after the arrest of the Summerfield gang upon Buchanan's complaint, which says that Summerfield, E. H. Clarke, F. S. Weller and Ignatius L. Qualey conspired here to rob Buchanan, who was in Paris, and that Summerfield and Clarke met there and did swindle him out of $10,000, and that they sent $3,000 of this amount to Weller and Qualey, who remained in New York. The four are indicted jointly. Qualey has confessed all he knows about the Buchanan swindle. Assistant District Attorney Nott said yesterday that the Summerfield gang, by means of the Horse Shoe Copper Mining Company swindle, had gathered in $68,000 in six months in 1902 that he knew of. Summerfield winced when the verdict of the jury was announced. His wife was in court.

The mode of operating the copper mining company swindle was like this: An advertisement for an investor who wanted quick returns was published. The investor was informed that a sick engineer who didn't know its value had stock of the Horse Shoe Copper Mining Company which that concern would pay a high price for. One of the gang secured the investor to the "sick engineer" and he bought a few shares for about five or six dollars a share, and then went to the offices of the copper mining company and sold the shares for double what he paid. Thus encouraged, he returned to the engineer and bought heavily. This time the Horse Shoe Copper Mining Company refused to buy the shares.

Summerfield is said to have spent all the money he made by the perennial "wire tapping" swindle, while "Chippie" Moran is believed to have saved a hundred thousand or so. Convictions for this swindle are rare, because the complainants' hands are about as dirty as those of the other crooks.

HELD FOR WIFE MURDER.

Bridgeport Man Charged With Poisoning His Wife With Strychnine.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Nov. 9.—Peter Kelly, a mechanic, about 50 years old, was arrested here this afternoon charged with the murder of his wife, Annie, who died three weeks ago of the effects of strychnine poisoning. Mrs. Kelly married the accused about six years ago. She was his second wife, the first wife having obtained a divorce from Kelly on the ground of cruelty. The second wife married Kelly on condition that he should give her a deed to a house in which he lived. He did so, and for five years he tried to induce his wife to deed back the property to him, but she refused. It is said that Kelly threatened to kill her unless she granted his request, and even told friends that unless he got his house back he would "put her under the bed." Three weeks ago Mrs. Kelly complained of feeling ill. Her husband advised her to drink whiskey, and forthwith produced a bottle of it, which he had secreted about the house. She took several swallows of it and became violently ill soon after. Kelly told his wife that it was the whiskey that had made her ill, and would not send for a doctor until a neighbor called. Dr. George W. Osborn, who was summoned, detected the symptoms of poison; but it had done its work and he was unable to save her life. Dr. Osborn reported the case to the police, who have ascertained where Kelly purchased the poison a short time before the death of his wife. They also have the contents of the bottle containing the liquor.

COSTLY WEDDING SOUVENIRS.

Their guests included the Misses Marion Fish, Natalie Wells, Harriet Daly, Eleanor Swayne, Isabel Fanshawe, Edith Lounsbury and George T. Brokaw, E. Victor Loew, Jr., J. Imilio Blair, George Ades, Andrew Sage, Arthur Havermeier, James Geer and Robert Wrenn. Miss Loew presented pearl orange blossom pins with diamond centres to her bridesmaids, and Mr. Brokaw gave his attendants diamond horseshoe pins.

Old Couple Asphyxiated.

Kaufman Lang, a retired cigar manufacturer, and his wife were found dead in bed yesterday, asphyxiated by gas, at their residence, 12 East 110th street. The key of the gas jet is defective and it is supposed that when the old people retired one of them in turning off the gas accidentally turned it on again.

New Bridge Loops Next Monday.

The four additional trolley loops at the Manhattan end of the Brooklyn Bridge will be ready for service next Monday. The assignment of the car lines to the re-arranged loops has not yet been decided upon.

LEICESTER HOLME'S WIFE LOSES.

Must Try Again If She Is to Take Away the Income He Gets From Her.

Supreme Court Justice Clarke decided yesterday that Leicester Holme, formerly a City Court Judge and now residing in Paris, was not properly served with the summons and complaint in his wife's suit to recover certain property, valued at about $100,000, of which he is at present enjoying the income under a trust created by his wife at the time of their marriage.

Mrs. Holme alleged that when she married she agreed to allow her husband an income equal to his salary as Excise Commissioner provided he would resign his position and go to Paris with her. She meant to give him the income for four years only, but the papers creating the trust, which he drew up as her lawyer, made the income run for his life.

She sued and recently obtained a judgment against him dissolving the trust and awarding her the back income. He came into court, however, to set aside the judgment on the ground of incorrect service, and Justice Clarke has granted the motion to vacate the judgment.

DRIVES OUT THE GAMBLERS.

Peterson's Hustling Mayor Gets Rid of Them in a Day.

PATERSON, N. J., Nov. 9.—Mayor Hinchliffe began a crusade against poolrooms and gambling houses to-day. Several places have been running in Paterson for some time. The rumor that warrants had been issued for twenty John Does closed every place up tight to-day. "Poolroom better than go to Lake View, just outside the city limits. One gambling establishment, operated by New York men, ceased to do business entirely when the proprietors heard that the Mayor was after them.
